At B·HOSPITALITY, our mission is to exceed service expectations at all levels of our business. Is YOUR mission the same? Are you the last one to leave a party? Do you love cleaning up after yourself (and that very messy friend of yours)? Do you use the force to anticipate other's needs? Do others call you the host/hostess with the most/mostest? If so, we're looking for folks just like you to share your passion and enthusiasm for service with the world...or maybe just the tri-cities area to start.

What we're looking for:

- Service professionals - In this role, providing warm, welcoming and amazing service to our guests has to be your thing. And you need to look the part too!
- Extroverts - You've gotta love talking to people and being in the middle of it all.
- Communication all stars – Perhaps you are a mind reader, but we sure aren't. You'll need to communicate early and often so we can work together to be our best selves.
- Super human strength – Just kidding, but you do need to be comfortable with setting up events which includes lifting up to 25 lbs and moving tables and chairs.
- Access to Transportation – This is extremely helpful to get you to where you're going. Some of our events are off the beaten track, so public transportation may not be an option.
- Smart Serve Certified – If you don't have it, that's okay you just need to be prepared to go and get it.

Why you want to work here:

- You love the flexibility of working a variety of different shifts including weekends, mornings, evenings and weekends.
- A job well done will be noticed (you're not a small cog in a big wheel here!) with lots of opportunities for growth.
- It's been your dream to work Conferences, Weddings, Workshops, Concerts, Festivals...we've got them all and we need you to deliver excellence to each one of our Guests.
- You are looking for an outlet for your confidence, enthusiasm and drive.
- Great pay and perks (including company discounts); even better co-workers!
- You want to work for a locally owned and growing business that supports our community.
